

American Government Reading Lists

In each of the history courses this year there is a summer reading assignment. You will have a test on the book. The test is given on the 2nd day of class & will test your knowledge of basic facts, events, and characters from the book.

American Government will also have supplementary book that we will use along with our textbook.

Summer Reading List: MUST BE READ BY THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL:

For Which We Stand: How Our Government Works and Why it Matters by Jeff Foster

This is not a summer reading book, but all students must have for American Government class:

- Painless American Government by Jeffrey Stausser

We will use this book throughout the course. Students will have assigned reading from this book, and we will discuss it in class. Please have a copy ready for the beginning of the school year. You can check with other students from previous years, and they may let you borrow their copy.
